

NON-AMBULATORY COWS

Objective: To provide comfort and support to animals aiding in their recovery from injury/disease or to humanely euthanize animals that will not recover.

Additional Objectives:

Moving & Handling
How are family and non-family employees trained to manage non-ambulatory animals?
How and who is responsible for the determination of improvement, additional treatment, re-entry back into the herd or euthanasia made?
What equipment is used to move the non- ambulatory animal?
How many employees are to assist with moving non-ambulatory animals?
Where are non-ambulatory animals moved to?
How is feed, water, protection from heat and cold for typical climatic conditions, isolation from other ambulatory animals, and protection from predators?

Additional Protocols Specifications:

Treatment
What medical care is provided to non-ambulatory animals and when is care provided?
Where are treatments recorded?
What additional methods of rehabilitation are used for non-ambulatory animals?

Additional Protocols Specifications:
