

Human Resources Legal Fact Sheet: Nebraska

Updated June 2022

Disclaimer: This factsheet summarizes state laws and regulations on a variety of human resource issues for dairy farms, including wages, paystubs, deductions, child labor, and more. It is not intended to provide legal advice. The factsheet is simply an overview of select issues with a high-level explanation of key requirements for each one, with links to more information and resources throughout the document. This factsheet does not include all legal requirements for dairies. It was created in June 2022, and while it will be periodically updated, it may not reflect the current state of the law on every topic covered. Dairies should also review the federal factsheet because employers—depending on size—may be required to comply with some or all of the applicable federal laws and regulations as well. Additionally, employers should review the provisions of their collective bargaining agreement(s). By using this factsheet you understand that there is no attorney-client relationship between you and the attorneys who were involved in developing the factsheet. This factsheet should not be used as a substitute for competent legal advice from a licensed attorney.

Reporting <sup>2</sup>	YES	New hires and rehires must be reported to the New Hire Reporting Center within 20 days.

Wages

Topic	Answer	Summary
Paydays <sup>3</sup>	YES	Must establish regular paydays in advance.
Final Pay <sup>4</sup>	YES	Employees that are fired, quit, or otherwise separated must be paid by the next regularly scheduled payday or within two weeks, whichever is sooner. Final wages cannot be withheld pending return of employer's property.

Hours Worked	NO	Nebraska law does not explicitly define 'hours worked' for calculating compensable time. Employers are encouraged to review the federal fact sheet.
Reporting Time Pay	NO	Nebraska law does not require reporting time pay, i.e. an employee is only required to be paid for actual hours worked.
Pay Stub <sup>6</sup>	YES	For each payday, employers must provide employees with a wage statement that shows, at least: the identity of the employer; number of hours the employee is being paid for; wages earned; and, any deductions made. Employers do not need to list the hours worked for employees exempt from overtime.
Taxes and Withholding <sup>7</sup>	YES	If an employer is required to withhold federal income tax, then they must also withhold Nebraska income tax. Employers must give employees a statement of taxes withheld, like a federal Form W-2, 1099-MISC or 1099-R. A Nebraska employer may withhold amounts from an employee's wages only when the deductions are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Required or permitted by state or federal law.</li> <li>• Required by court order.</li> <li>• Authorized in writing by the employee.</li> </ul>

Human Resources Legal Fact Sheet: Nebraska

		Employers must pay Nebraska Unemployment Insurance taxes if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>You paid cash wages to farm workers of $20,000 or more in a quarter in either the current or preceding calendar year; OR,</li> <li>You employed ten or more farm workers for some part of a day in 20 or more weeks of either the current or preceding calendar year.</li> </ul> Certain family employment is excluded from coverage requirements (a parent employed by their son/daughter, a person employed by their spouse, or a child under 21 employed by a parent). Bonuses <sup>9</sup>	YES	Nebraska courts have ruled that a payment is considered wages if it: is compensation for labor or services, it was previously agreed to, all the conditions have been met. Given that interpretation, nondiscretionary bonuses paid under an agreement (oral or written) would be considered wages protected under Nebraska wage payment laws. Discretionary wages would not be considered wages. A nondiscretionary bonus is one where the amount and criteria for getting the bonus are announced in advance. For example, performance goals (like meeting somatic cell count goals or a bonus for length of service) that workers know about in advance. Discretionary bonuses are ones that are not announced in advance, not expected by the employee, and not an incentive for the employee. For example, when the farm reaches a certain financial goal and decides to give all employees a bonus. Employers should follow any written policy they have about paying bonuses as a best practice.
